

Seminar for Postdoctoral Students of German and Central-European Jewish History, Jerusalem, February 14-18, 2016

Venue: Leo Baeck Institute, Bustenai 33, Jerusalem

SUNDAY, February 14	MONDAY, February 15	TUESDAY, February 16	WEDNESDAY, February 17	THURSDAY, February 18
	09.00 – 12.30 Joint panel by Dorit Yosef, Gaelle Fisher and Mark Cole : Approaches to German-Jewish History	09.30 – 12.00 Victoria Kumar Loyal follower and constant critic – Wolfgang von Weisl and his relationship to Vladimir Jabotinsky Comment : Guy Miron		9.00 – 12.30 Hanan Harif SD Goitein and Oriental Studies: Between Germany, Jerusalem and the USA Comment : Christian Wiese
13.00 Opening & light lunch		David Jünger “We understand them too well, the Blacks in the ghetto of Harlem...” Holocaust memory and Black-Jewish collaboration in the struggle for civil rights in postwar America Comment : Guy Miron		Michal Pick-Hamou Migrating Representations: Cinematography of political and cultural ideas of Eretz-Israeli Zionist cinema (the yishuv period) and the early German cinema – reflection and self-critic Comment : Doron Avraham
14.00 – 18.00 Rachel Furst Un-recorded Justice: The (Non-)Archival Practices of Jewish Courts in Medieval Ashkenaz Comment : Debra Kaplan	Dorit Yosef Daily concerns of German immigrants in Erez Israel during the 1930s as reflected in the Zionist German Jewish press: Jüdische Rundschau and Mitteilungsblatt (MB)			Adi Armon “The Origins of the Origins” - Anti-Semitism, Hannah Arendt, and Bernard Lazare Comment : Doron Avraham
Joint Panel by Avital Davidovich-Eshed and Orr Scharf From Ashkenaz to Germany: Myth and Jewish Identity from the Middle-Ages to the Twentieth Century.	Gaelle Fisher Zionism, Victimhood and Germanness: Constructing belonging for Bukovina Jews after WWII			12.30 Summary
Avital Davidovich-Eshed Reliving Sinai: Wedding Rituals, Communal Identity and Inter-Religious Polemics in Medieval Ashkenaz	Mark Cole Consumption Patterns of German-Jewry during the Years of Persecution.			14.00 Lunch Sushi Rehavia
	12.30 – 13.30 Lunch Break
Orr Scharf The Dark Side of Theo-Politics: Martin Buber's Conception of Gnosis as Radical Evil	13.30-16.00 Werner Treß The controversial nexus between ‘Wissenschaft des Judentums’ and ‘Wissenschaft des Judentums’ Comment : Christian Wiese	19.00 Public event (in Hebrew) From Ashkenas to German Jewry, from German Jewry to our days. Between destruction and continuity Roundtable with young researchers. In cooperation with the Franz Rosenzweig Minerva Research Center Participants : Orr Scharf, Rachel Furst, Adi Armon, Hillel Ben Sasson, Oren Roman. Chair : Guy Miron ; Opening : Shmuel Feiner

Leo Baeck Institute Jerusalem

33 Bustenai Street
Tel. 02-5633790

The Hotel

Prima Royal
3 Mendele Mokher Sfarim
St.
Tel. 02-5607111

The Restaurant

Sushi Rehavia
6 Rabi Akiva Street
Tel. 02-6222083